

Automated data ingestion procedures and improved overall reporting efficiency by 40% with the introduction of custom-built data views and reports. Collaborated with stakeholders and supervisor to define requirements and deliver tailored solution.

- Met with supervisor to outline process improvement strategy.
- Collaborated with engineering colleagues to develop and test algorithms designed to replace manual data ingestion, storage, and assessment operations.
- Liaised with stakeholders to provide updates and integrate feedback as needed.
- Obtained leadership approval and facilitated integration of new program utilizing SQL database and Google Analytics API technology.